Welcome Bob Sullivan to NFPA

Please welcome Bob Sullivan as NFPA's new Southwest Regional Director. Working from Colorado, Bob will assist in code adoption, legislative advocacy, and stakeholder engagement in Arizona, Colorado, Kansas, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas and Utah.

Bob has over 31 years of experience serving on fire departments in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Colorado, including several years at the rank of Lieutenant. Prior to coming to NFPA, he served on the Thornton Fire Department in Colorado as the Senior Fire Protection Engineer and Deputy Fire Marshal, focusing on new development construction and fire code enforcement. During his time there, he participated as a member of the NFPA/IFMA North Central Regional Fire Code Development Committee and also served as the Vice President of the Fire Marshal's Association of Colorado. Previously, Bob worked for National Foam Inc./Kidde Firefighting USA and Industrial Risk Insurers. He has a Master's Degree in Fire Protection Engineering from Worcester Polytechnic Institute and is a Certified Fire Protection Specialist.
